Accident Insurance

SUMMARY OF BENEFITS

Affirm, Inc.

Coverage Effective 1/1/2027

Why Is Accident Insurance Important?

Life doesn't always go according to plan. When an accident happens, the last thing you want to worry about is the unexpected costs that can come with it. Accident Insurance helps provide added financial protection, so you can stay focused on recovery.

What Does Accident Insurance Cover?

Accident Insurance pays benefits directly to you when an accident occurs on or after the effective date of coverage. Examples of covered Accidents include, but are not limited to burns, lacerations, concussions, fractures and dislocations. You may also receive additional benefits for treatment of covered accidents. For example, if you were to experience an accident and fracture your wrist, you could receive the listed payments below to use as you choose.

Accident-Related Benefit	Benefit
Hospital Admission	$1,000
Treatment in the ER (Emergency Care Benefit)	$120
X-Ray	$50
Injury Diagnosed-Fractures Wrist (closed)	$1,200
Follow Up Doctor's Visit	$50

Consider this

Jesse enrolls in Accident Insurance effective January 1st, giving him peace of mind that he is prepared for out-of-pocket expenses if a covered accident occurs.

On March 23rd Jesse is seriously injured in a bike accident. An ambulance rushes him to the hospital for treatment.

Jesse receives his medical bills and remembers he has Accident Insurance. He files his claim with Prudential.

Prudential receives Jesse's claim, which includes his doctor's diagnosis and necessary documentation.

Prudential processes the claim and sends Jesse a payment for his Accident Insurance claim.

Jesse receives payment which he uses to help cover expenses incurred during his treatment and recovery. He is relieved that he didn't miss out on this valuable benefit.

This coverage is not health insurance coverage (often referred to as "Major Medical Coverage").

This type of plan is NOT considered "minimum essential coverage" under the Affordable Care Act and therefore does NOT satisfy the individual mandate that you have health insurance coverage.
