

Maven's Return-to-Work Resources

Maven provides virtual support for starting and raising a family, including dedicated resources for postpartum and returning to work. You can use Maven to book virtual appointments with doctors, specialists and coaches, access one-on-one Care Advocate support and connect with other parents.

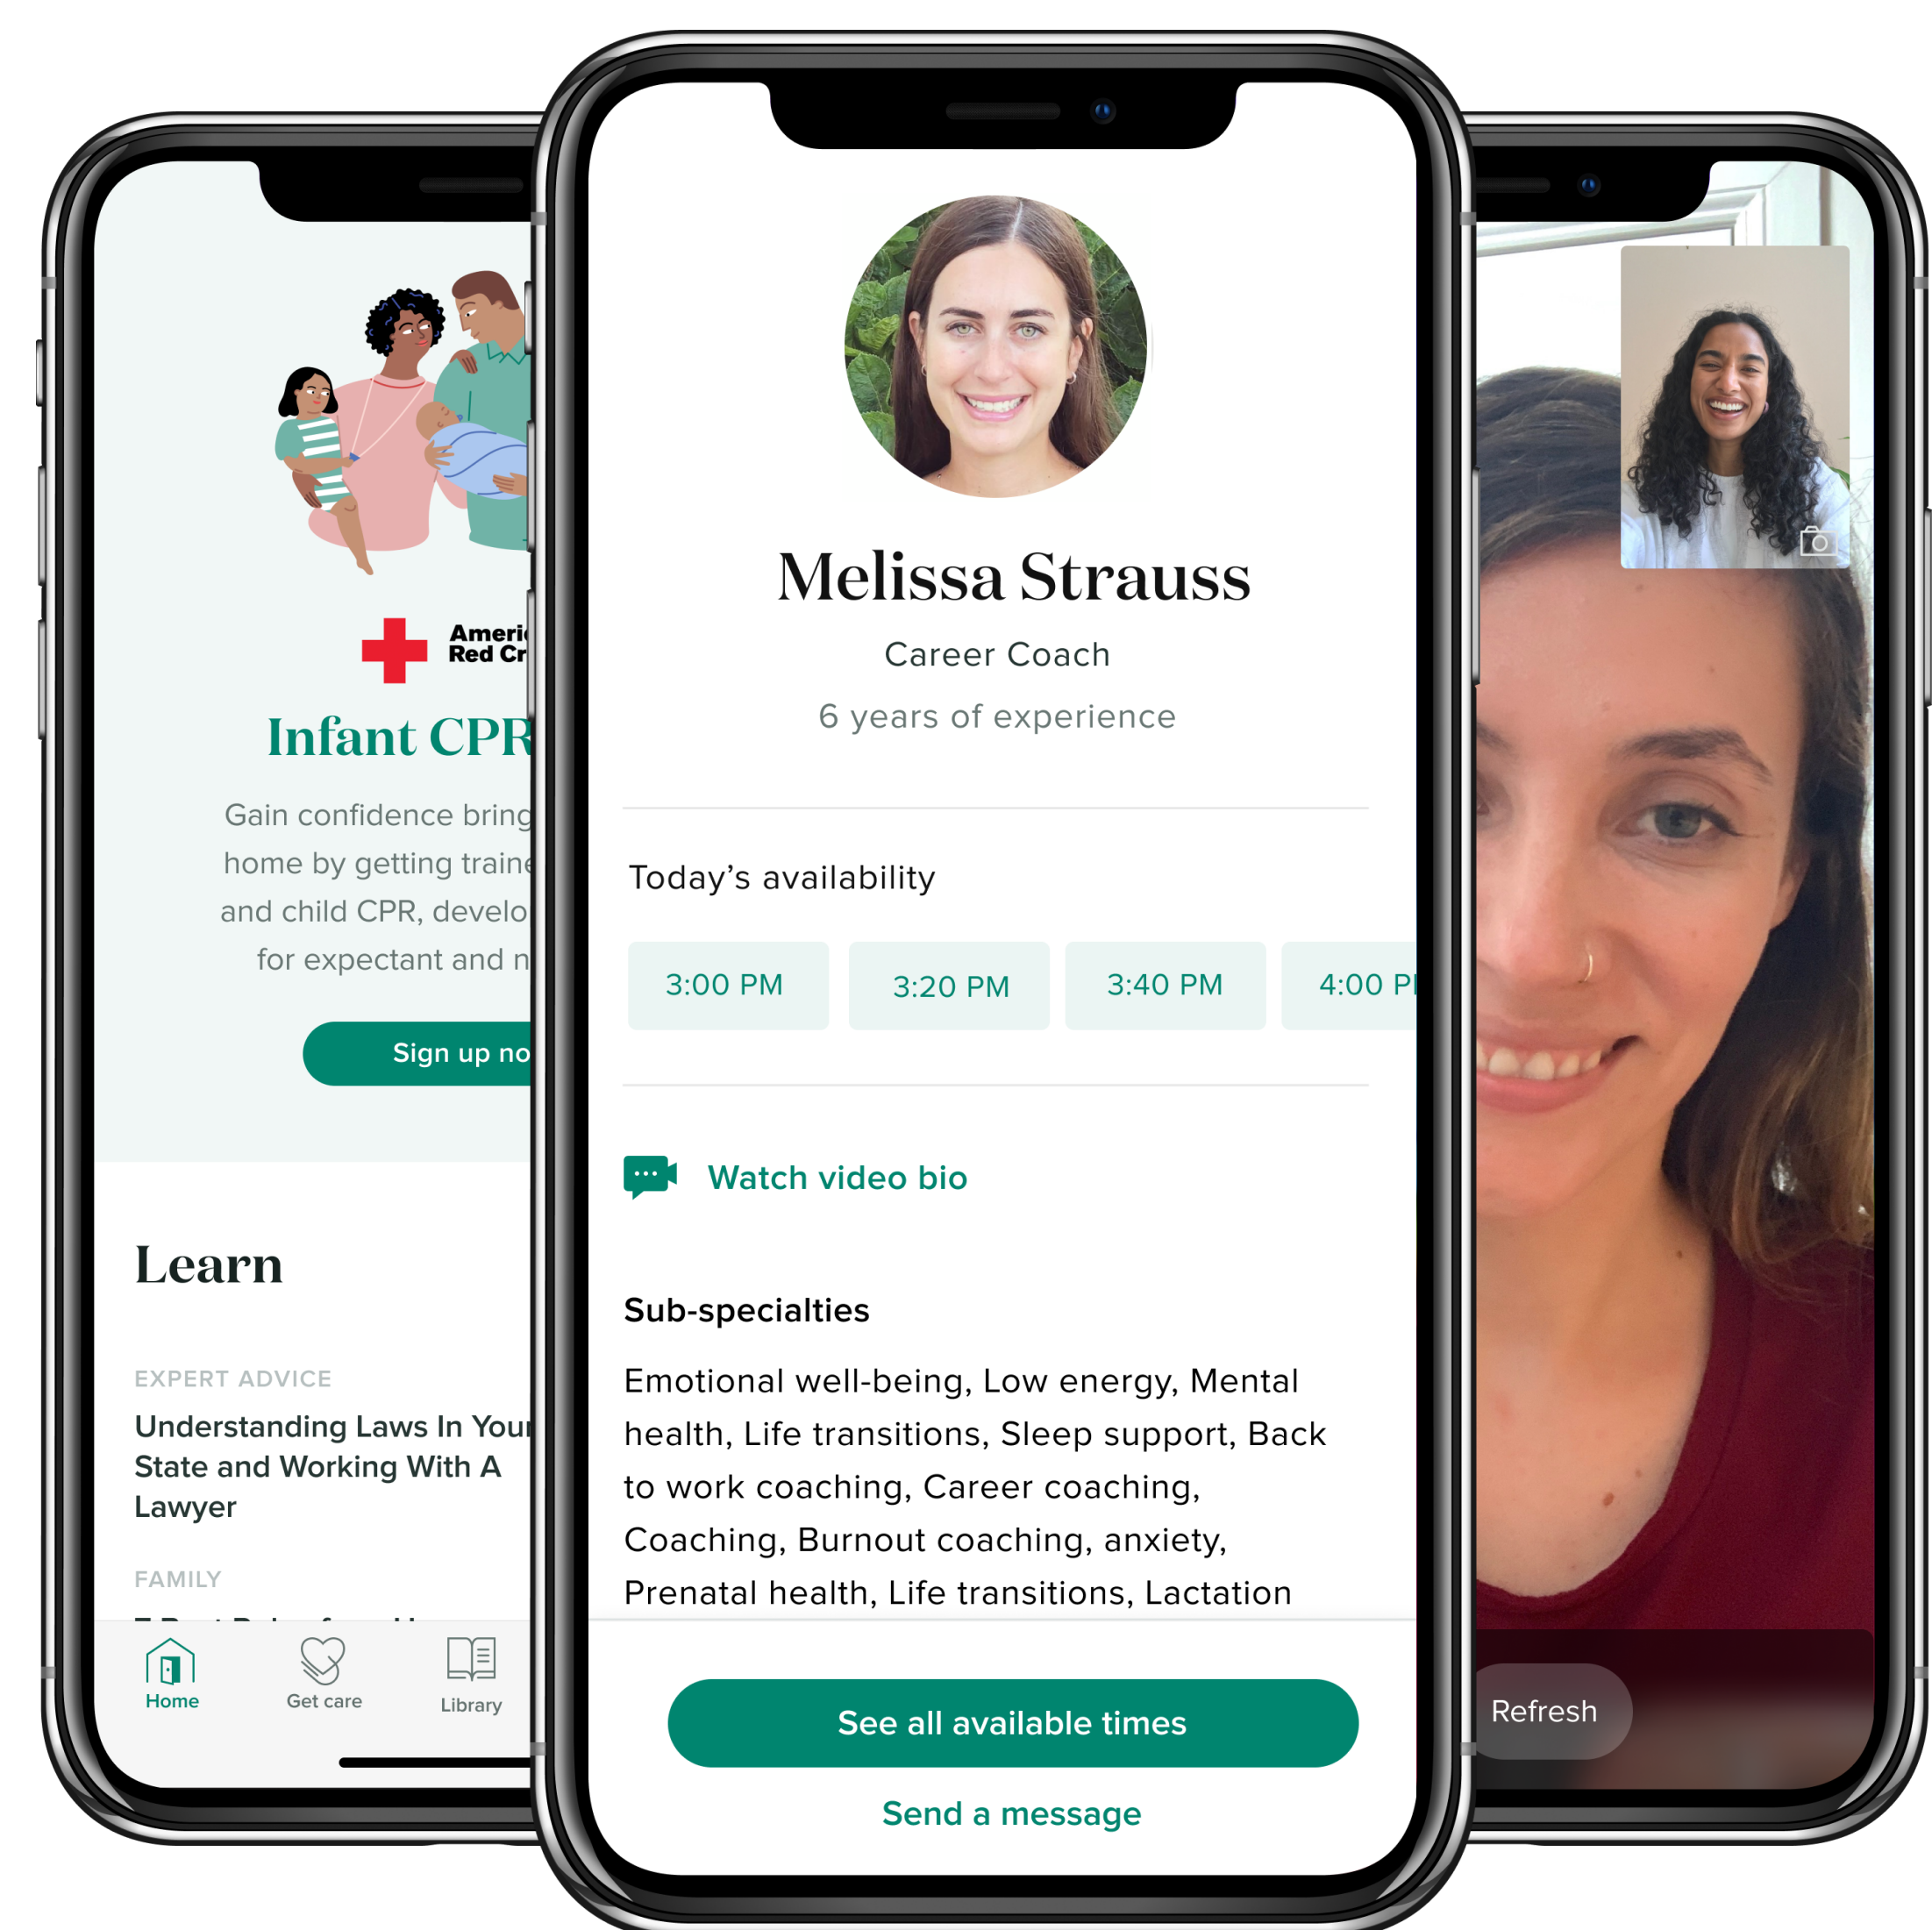

And it's all free as part of your employer-sponsored membership.

Whole-person support, on your terms and your schedule

- ✓ Unlimited video and texting with doctors and specialists, including Career Coaches and other experts in the return-to-work-experience
- ✓ Appointments that fit your schedule through a convenient and easy-to-use digital platform
- ✓ One-on-one support with your own Care Advocate for help finding the right providers for your needs and understanding your benefits
- ✓ Informative articles and classes that are accessible, relatable, and relevant to your life

“Every provider I've met with, every article I've read, and every aspect of Maven emits empathy and incredible knowledge.”
